AT the Court at St. James's, the 5th Day of April, 1770,

PRESENT,

The KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council

WHEREAS there was this Day read at the Board, a Letter from Keith Urquhart, Sheriff Depute of the County of Banff in Scotland, to the Lord Juſtice Clerk, and a Copy of a Letter from Theophilus Ogilvie, Collector of the Cuſtoms at Aberdeen, to the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms in Scotland, containing Information, that an infectious Diſtemper had broke out amongſt the Horned Cattle in and about the Town of Portſoy in the ſaid County of Banff; —That the Sheriff Depute, and ſeveral of the Juſtices of the Peace of the ſaid County, did, upon hearing thereof, meet together, to conſider what was fit to be done; That, upon Enquiry, finding that the Infection was ſpreading, and that Cattle belonging to ſeveral different Perſons, had died of the Diſtemper, they came to the Reſolution of ordering all the Cattle in and about the Town of Portſoy to be appretiated, and to order them to be killed and buried, after giving Aſſurance to the Owners of an Indemnification for the Loſs of their Cattle; and that their Orders had been accordingly carried into Execution, by killing and burying the Number of One Hundred and Forty-two Cattle;—That the ſaid Sheriff Depute and Juſtices of the Peace, did hire proper Perſons to watch and prevent all Cattle from being brought into the Town, and did give the neceſſary Directions to cleanſe the Cow-houſes, and other Places where the infected Cattle had been;—That there was Reaſon to believe the Infection had been brought from Holland in the Packages of uncuſtomed or prohibited Goods, which had been ſmuggled into that Part of the Kingdom.—And whereas by an Act paſſed in this preſent Year of His Majeſty's Reign intitled, "An Act for indemnifying all Perſons with reſpect to Adviſing or Carrying into Execution His Majeſty's Orders of Council made for preventing the Spreading of a contagious Diſtemper amongſt the Horned Cattle, and for rendring the ſame valid and effectual, and for preventing Suits in conſequence thereof, and to authorize the continuing, extending, and executing the ſame for a further Time;"—His Majeſty is empowered, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to extend His Orders iſſued upon the ſeventh and fourteenth Days of December laſt, for preventing the Spreading of the ſaid infectious Diſtemper in the County of Southampton, to all ſuch Counties and Places in Great-Britain, as His Majeſty, in His great Wiſdom, ſhall judge moſt expedient and effectual to prevent the Spreading of ſuch infectious Diſtemper;—His Majeſty, taking the ſaid Letters into Conſideration, and approving the Steps already taken, is graciouſly pleaſed to confirm the Aſſurance given to the Owners of the Cattle which have been killed, of an Indemnification; and His Majeſty, deeming it of the utmoſt Importance that ſuch further Steps ſhould be taken, as may appear to be neceſſary to prevent the Spreading of the ſaid infectious Diſtemper, that has already broke out, or may hereafter break out, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, is pleaſed, with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the Sheriff Depute, or Subſtitute in the County of Banff, do call a Meeting of the Juſtices of the Peace of the ſaid County of Banff, to be held in the Town of Portſoy, or at any convenient Place near thereto; and that the ſaid Sheriff Depute, or Subſtitute, and Juſtices of the Peace ſo aſſembled, the Number of Juſtices not being leſs than three, do aſcertain the Value of the Cattle already killed, from the Appretiations made of them, or in any other Manner that to them may appear the moſt proper, for diſcovering the juſt Value thereof, and of the Expence unavoidably incurred in preventing the Spreading of the Diſtemper; and that they do make up an Account thereof, and certify the ſame by a Writing under their Hands, the Sheriff Depute or Subſtitute being always one who ſhall ſubſcribe the ſaid Writing.—And it is further ordered, that the ſaid Sheriff Depute or Subſtitute, and any three or more of the ſaid Juſtices of Peace of the ſaid County of Banff, or the Sheriff Depute or Subſtitute, and any three or more of the Juſtices of Peace of any other County in Scotland, within which the ſaid Infectious Diſtemper ſhall appear, may meet together and order ſuch Steps to be taken, as to them ſhall ſeem the moſt likely to ſtop and prevent the Spreading of the ſaid Diſtemper, where it is now broke out, or where it may hereafter break out, by the due Execution of the following Directions; particularly if they judge it neceſſary to buy up all Oxen, Bulls, Cows, Calves, Steers, and Heifers, whether infected or not, in thoſe Places within which, in their Judgment, the Infection ſhall have broke out or ſpread to, at a Price not exceeding their fair and full Value, to be aſcertained by the Report of two or more Perſons, whom they ſhall appoint to appretiate the ſaid Cattle upon Oath; and to give Orders, that the Cattle, ſo bought and appretiated, ſhall be immediately killed, and their Carcaſſes and Hides buried and treated in all Reſpects in the Manner preſcribed by an Order of His late Majeſty in Council, dated the 22d of March 1747. And in Caſe there ſhould be any Owner or Owners of Cattle, ſo regardleſs of the Publick Welfare, as to refuſe to ſell ſuch their Cattle at the Prices which they ſhall be appretiated appretiated at, that the ſaid Sheriff Depute or Sheriff Subſtitute, and any three or more Juſtices of the Peace of the County, may cauſe ſuch Cattle to be nevertheleſs killed and treated as aforeſaid—But His Majeſty is pleaſed to declare, That it is not intended that the Powers contained in the ſaid Order of the 22d of March 1747, ſhould be revived by this preſent Order, other than thoſe which regard the Treating of the Cattle when killed, and the Preventing the Driving or Removing any Horned Cattle, that ſhall be within the Compaſs of one Mile of any Infected Place, unleſs from one Paſture to another, or to Water, or for the Purpoſe of Slaughtering ſuch Cattle; and that ſuch Cattle be not, on any Pretence whatſoever, permitted to be removed farther than one Mile from ſuch Infected Place—And it is further ordered, That the Sheriff Deputes or Subſtitutes, and Juſtices, who may meet for the Purpoſe of Executing theſe His Majeſty's Orders, ſhall at ſuch Meetings from Time to Time, make up a diſtinct Account of the Cattle voluntarily ſold by the Owners, and of the Cattle that ſhall be killed without the Owners Conſent, from the Appretiations to be made of them in the Manner before directed, and of all ſuch unavoidable Expence incurred in Executing their Directions for preventing the Spreading of the ſaid Diſtemper; and after certifying the Amount thereof by a Writing under their Hands, the Sheriff Depute or Subſtitute being always one who certifies the ſame, ſhall tranſmit the ſaid Accounts, Certificates, and Appretiations, to the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, and ſhall communicate from Time to Time to this Board, what they ſhall have done in Obedience to this Order—And His Majeſty, with the like Advice of His Privy Council, hereby orders the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury to iſſue ſuch Sums from Time to Time as may be neceſſary to pay all Charges and Expences occaſioned by the Execution of this Order, and that ſhall be certified to them in Manner before directed.

[Price Three-Pence.]

Steph. Cottrell.

This Day the King was pleaſed to inveſt his Royal Highneſs Prince William Henry, His Majeſty's third Son, with the Enſigns of the moſt Ancient and moſt Noble Order of the Thiſtle.

At the Entrance a low Reverence was made; a Second about the Middle; and, on being advanced to the Sovereign, a Third.—His Royal Highneſs being preſented to the Sovereign by the two Senior Knights, and kneeling down, the Herald drew the Sword, and (kneeling) delivered it to the Sovereign, who thereupon knighted his Royal Highneſs; then the Prince, having kiſſed His Majeſty's Hand, roſe up; which done, Green Rod (having received the Green Ribbon, with the Symbol of the Order hanging to it) preſented the ſame (kneeling) to the Sovereign, upon a Velvet Cuſhion, who put the Ribbon over the Prince's Left Shoulder, and then, kneeling down, he again kiſſed His Majeſty's Hand; which done, the Prince roſe up, and, making a low Reverence, withdrew in the ſame Manner as his Royal Highneſs entered.—This Ceremony was performed in His Majeſty's Cloſet, moſt of the Great Officers of the State and Court being preſent.
